

Classic Elite Yarns

122 Western Avenue • Lowell MA 01851

www.classiceliteyarns.com

Member of The National NeedleArts Association

Description of company's products and services:

Wholesale. Hand-knitting yarns and patterns under the Classic Elite Yarns label. We also distribute products under the brand names of Twinkle, Jil Eaton, and St-Denis.

Type of Applicant you will accept: PiPN Summer Scholar

Time and duration of placement: Summer 2011

Specific dates: June — August 2011

Are you providing housing?

No.

Is transportation available? If so, what type?

Not really. We are somewhat accessible by train from Boston.

Please note if a car is required and, if so, if parking is available.

Yes, parking is available.

Description of city and any features or attractions of interest.

25 miles from downtown Boston, Lowell is an old mill town. We are located in a large artists' complex called "Western Avenue Studios." See www.westernavenuestudios.com for further information on the complex, and see www.lowellma.gov for points of interest in the area.

Intern's/apprentice's roles, responsibilities and activities.

Classic Elite is interested in having someone help catalog and organize its vast pattern collection, and work with its online pattern distributor on updating the distributor's database.

Pay: A small stipend will be available, depending on the student's housing and transportation situation.

Hours and days required.

Preferably 5 days a week, 8:30-4:30 pm. Part-time options available.

Special preferences as to classes or experience:

Social media, Graphic Design, Marketing, Merchandising

Do you require a portfolio?

No.

Other special preferences, skills, talents, experience preferred

Writing, internet skills, enough of an understanding of the specialty needlearts industry to be able to write about our store and the industry.

Some basic knowledge of a Mac computer, as well as Photoshop and/or In Design would be helpful.