

Crooked Fence Alpacas & Mill

Mona UT

www.crookedfencealpacas.com

Member of The National NeedleArts Association

Description of company's products and services:

Breeder & Mill. Have you ever looked an Alpaca in the eye? These sweet animals are a joy to be around. You'll spend your time on a real Alpaca farm in the middle of beautiful country, 80 miles south of Salt Lake City, Utah at the foot of majestic Mount Nebo. This amazing company has it all — from Alpacas, to a custom fiber processing mill. They even create handmade alpaca hats and scarves. As an intern here, you'll be involved in it all . . . Your hands may get "hands dirty" but your heart will be inspired.

Type of Applicant you will accept: PiPN Summer Scholar, Student Intern only, Apprentice

Time and duration of placement: Summer 2011 term

Specific dates: flexible

Are you providing housing? No.

Is transportation available? If so, what type? No.

Please note if a car is required and, if so, if parking is available.

Yes, parking is available.

Description of city and any features or attractions of interest.

See above. This is a small town, close to a National forest, hiking trails, camping and fishing. City is only 45 minutes away.

Intern's/apprentice's roles, responsibilities and activities.

Wide range of activities involved in all aspects of Alpaca yarn production.

Pay: TBD

Hours and days required.

Long

Special preferences as to classes or experience:

No.

Do you require a portfolio? No.

Other special preferences, skills, talents, experience preferred

Willingness and ability to work and get dirty without complaint